

DOC'S CAMPAIGN - TEAM SHIRT

Whether you saw these great looking shirts at our various Conferences, or maybe you just heard about them, you too can own one and be part of the team looking to elect a Greg "Doc" Gibbs to the high office of National Sons of The American Legion Commander. Only the second National Commander from New York State ever, and that was over 30 years ago!

These shirts are quality, wicking-type material and require little or no ironing. Women's shirts are cut differently and have a vee neck with a collar and no buttons. Men's are a traditional three button polo type shirt. All black with full color "What's up Doc?" carrot and Sons emblem, writing in white.

We will be wearing these shirts as the campaign goes forward to August of 2018. If you wish to be part of Doc's Team and wear your Doc Gibbs for National Commander Campaign Shirt you can order one NOW.

The attached order form needs to be filled out completely and a check for $35 enclosed for each shirt.

Allow 3-4 weeks for delivery.

Send check and order form to: Greg Gibbs, 286 Highland Avenue, Hamburg, NY 14075. Checks made payable to "Committee to Elect Greg Gibbs". Thanks for your support!
